

#RADICALBLACKQUEERJOY [THE ENTANGLEMENT OF ART AND ACTIVISM]

OCTOBER 31
6 - 9 PM

OCAD UNIVERSITY
100 MCCAUL ST., TORONTO

This BLM course will explore the intersection of art and activism through dialogue with artists from Canada and England. This special class is open to the public.

Our opening speaker will be Toronto-based professor and global artist Honor Ford-Smith, from York University, who brings a deep experience of being an educator, artist and activist from Canada.

Our featured international guest speaker will be Ajamu, a London-based fine art photographer and archive curator/activist, whose work has been shown in galleries, museums and alternative spaces nationally and internationally. Ajamu is supported by Musagetes for this special discussion in Toronto.
