

CAREER LAUNCHER: PARKS CANADA PHOTOGRAPHER-IN-RESIDENCE

OPPORTUNITY DESCRIPTION

The Centre for Emerging Artists & Designers is excited to announce the return of the Parks Canada Career Launcher for Photography students. Students are invited to apply for this opportunity and a successful applicant will be employed at Rouge Park - Canada's first national urban park.

The recipient will split their time between the office and the field; processing images in the Rouge National Urban Park photo library, shooting imagery and doing graphic design. Successful applicant will also receive a $500 equipment grant from the CEAD.

A rich assembly of natural, cultural and agricultural landscapes, Rouge National Urban Park is home to amazing biodiversity, some of the last remaining working farms in the Greater Toronto Area, Carolinian ecosystems, Toronto's only campground, one of the region's largest marshes, unspoiled beaches, amazing hiking opportunities, and human history dating back over 10,000 years, including some of Canada's oldest known Indigenous sites.

Parks Canada is excited to work towards the establishment of Canada's first national urban park - Rouge National Urban Park - in the Greater Toronto Area.
