

Design Wo/ManiFesT.O.

creating new ideas for Toronto

What futuristic design plans were formulated for Toronto? Have any achieved their goals as intended? What is an appropriate design vision for an evolving, diverse city—one with a complex history, and a myriad of growing urban challenges as well as opportunities? How can we engage citizens, including community advocates, creative practitioners, politicians... in a participatory, collective exercise to (re)imagine Toronto through design?

Come join in the conversation:

Public kick-off, panel discussion, and open-mic at OCAD University:

Open Space Gallery
49 McCaul Street, Toronto
Thursday January 24, 2019
6:30 pm – 8:30 pm.

Can't make it? Submit your ideas here: ocadu.ca/womanifesto

This kick-off event is part of the Design TO Festival

Design
TO Festival