ART & STRUGGLE

TWO-DAY GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE & ART EXHIBITION
THURSDAY, MARCH 8 - FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 2012

Art & Struggle Exhibition:

This exhibition presents contemporary works addressing issues emerging from the relationship between art and struggle. The show approaches questions associated with history, artistic and personal identity, contemporary politics, the metropolis and the resulting psychological turmoil. Six participating artists explore the complexities of these themes and provide their unique interpretations through the use of photography, video and performance.

Artists:

Ramiro Chaves, Robert Gerhardt, Faye Mullen, Jason Seeley and Emily Smit-Dicks.

Opening: Thursday March 8th, 6:00-9:00 pm

205 Richmond St. West, Graduate Gallery, Ground Floor

Exhibition Hours:

March 9th – March 14th
10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Conference registration is free. Please email artandstruggle@gmail.com to confirm your attendance.
